

WALLWORKS NY

Bronx, NY - WALLWORKS NEW YORK is proud to announce our next exhibition, PICK 'N MIX, a solo showing from New Zealand artist, PRIEST! In this latest exhibition, PRIEST offers a nostalgic twist on contemporary graffiti and street art, fusing recognizable characters with twisted views on the world.

PRIEST's satirical style contrasts playful and innocent imagery with dark, subversive subject matters. His compositions are bright and colorful, combining nostalgic cartoons, video games and street art in a tongue-in-cheek critique of capitalism and corporate culture. Toys also feature heavily in PRIEST's practice, "the word doubling as a derogatory term for inexperienced painters in the graffiti scene while emphasizing the element of play that's central to his approach" (Beyond the Streets).

ABOUT WALLWORKS NEW YORK

WALLWORKS NEW YORK is a contemporary art gallery in the South Bronx, dedicated to bringing art back uptown. In the vein of Fashion MODA, WALLWORKS is dedicated to showcasing new and exciting art from both emerging and established artists, mixing "downtown" sensibility with "uptown" style; a place for exploration. The passion project of legendary Graffiti pioneer CRASH and entrepreneur Robert Kantor, WALLWORKS seeks to remind people of the rich culture of the Bronx, and encourage everyone to take a trip Uptown!

ABOUT PRIEST

PRIEST is a contemporary street artist whose satirical style fuses nostalgic cartoon motifs with sharp critiques of capitalism and consumerism. His thought-provoking works draw from video games, toys, and graffiti, creating a playful yet subversive visual language that challenges cultural norms. PRIEST rose to prominence as the youngest artist featured in London's Beyond the Streets at Saatchi Gallery and has since exhibited globally in cities including Los Angeles, Rome, and Melbourne. PRIEST's clever works invites collectors into a world where dark humor and cultural commentary collide.
